

Manuel Mejía

Web Solutions Architect

Ann Arbor, MI 48103. (971) 533-7591.

hello@manimejia.me . <http://manimejia.me>

SUMMARY

I communicate across disciplines to produce practical, scalable, and user-centered web solutions for small businesses, nonprofits, and academic clients. I am optimistically powered, creatively inspired, and technically minded.

EMPLOYMENT & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

32 products delivered since 2001

Web Solutions Designer & Developer

Freelance, USA

August 2005 - PRESENT

- Designed and implemented custom websites and web content - from initial consultation to final release.
- Designed product logos and multimedia assets for most projects.
- Led the development of Drupal-based web solutions for small business, nonprofit, and academic clients.
- Developed APIs and custom modules to integrate data from legacy enterprise systems.
- Designed product strategy and solutions for multiple early phase startup projects.

Web Application Front End Lead

InfoShuk (technology startup), Ann Arbor, MI

October 2015 - April 2016

- Co-designed the SaaS product strategy and alignment of user experience .
- Collected and integrated feedback from user testing.
- Developed the frontend codebase using AngularJS and Bootstrap.
- Designed APIs to communicate with the back end.

Web Application Front End Lead

InfoReady (technology startup), Ann Arbor, MI

March 2015 - October 2016

- Led refinement and development of front end user experience for web-based SaaS products.
- Worked across teams to design and execute timely solutions to meet evolving product definition.
- Developed custom frontend code base in AngularJS.
- Contributed new APIs and backend code base to accommodate changing product requirements.

Application Designer & Website Project Lead

Oregon State University Graduate School (higher education), Corvallis, OR.

April 2012 - September 2014

- Led inter-team communications to fully redesign, develop, and execute the Graduate School website.
- Developed and implemented content strategy, information architecture and user experience for web.
- Developed frontend code for online applications, integrating BootStrap with VisualForce.

Application Designer & Website Project Lead

Elite Care (elder care facility), Portland, Or.

May 2009 - August 2011

- Led user research, wireframing, and interactive prototyping.
- Developed MVP product to demonstrate viability in the field.
- Developed website and content management user backend for this multicampus elder care facility.

Manuel Mejía

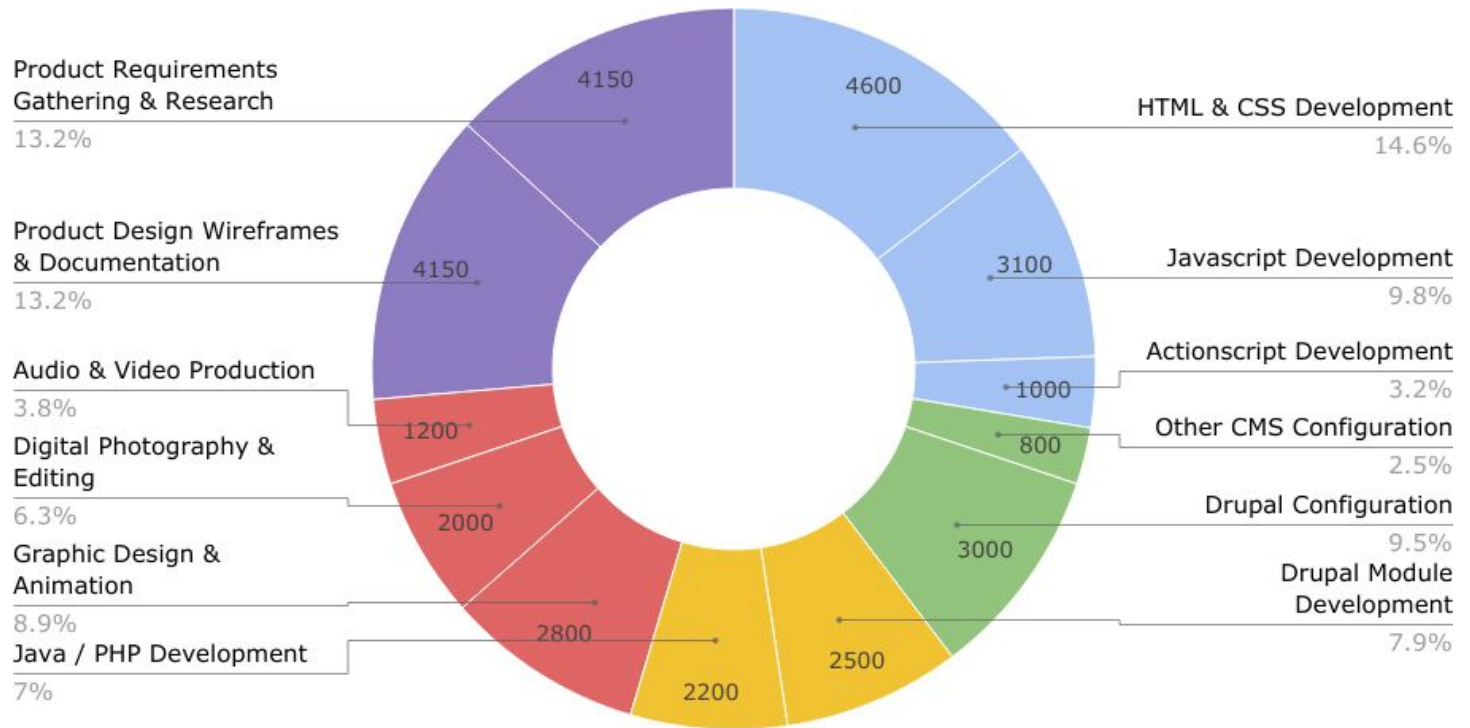

Web Solutions Architect

Ann Arbor, MI 48103. (971) 533-7591.

hello@manimejia.me . <http://manimejia.me>

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

31500 professional hours since 2001

EDUCATION

- Art Student's League of Denver. Fine Art. 1990-1992
- University of Northern Colorado. Musical Theater. 1992-1994